This month on the Art Wall: Everyone is a critic!

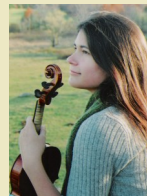

Have you read any books recently that were so good you wanted to tell all of your friends? Join the WSPL staff by writing reviews of your favorite books from 2011. The reviews will be displayed on the Art Wall along with reviews and info on the books that have won 2011's literary awards.

February 10th Music Sandwiched In with Dan Daniels

Dan Daniels has been making music for over 35 years, but it was during the recording of his first album "Guts and Gravel" that he perfected his mix of Americana and roots rock 'n' roll. Dan's combination of social commentary, fun lyrics, and uplifting tunes leads to a satisfying musical experience for one and all.

February 24th Music Sandwiched In with Zoe Darrow

Zoe Darrow began fiddling when she was 4 years old and has been performing publicly since 1999. Even now, as she is studying anthropology and ethnomusicology at Mount Holyoke, she keeps up a busy schedule performing a mix of traditional Scottish, Irish, and Cape Breton fiddle tunes.
